

Heather Hiller

As General Counsel/Senior Vice President of Legal & Development, Heather oversees all of Daimler's legal affairs as well as the needs of related entities, including coordinating formation of new entities. With a wide array of experience in all aspects of real estate law, Heather brings a broad range of expertise to her position at The Daimler Group. From acquisitions and development for a Fortune 50 company to representing owner/landlord in matters of property ownership and management, Heather has handled all facets of real estate development. She has advised clients on commercial real estate acquisitions and sales for such varying subjects as office, industrial, retail, multi-family, construction and permanent lending, mixed use leasing and development, oil and gas leasing, and ancillary income opportunities. Ms. Hiller joined Daimler in 2013 and has over 23 years of experience in all aspects of commercial real estate law. Heather uses her numerous years of real estate law experience to guide the Daimler Team in complex legal transactions, development, acquisition deals and preconstruction activities.
